We believe in providing a safe, natural, happy, secure environment where kids can be kids. We believe hiring and training a mature, caring, fun loving staff is the key element in helping us achieve this goal each summer. We believe in providing a structured program for children that emphasizes a feeling of family, friendship and belonging and encourages active participation in a variety of experiences. We believe summer camp should be a positive learning and growing experience for everyone involved.

Personal Appearance Expectations

As role models for children we expect our staff to present a wholesome image. Staff will maintain a clean, neat and well-groomed appearance. Staff members are to be clean shaven. Hair is to be a natural color (no blue, pink, green, etc.) Body piercing is to be limited to females' ears and/or navels (no nose, tongue, eyebrow piercing etc.) Visible tattoos are to be small, inconspicuous and appropriate for a children's summer camp. We reserve the right to determine standards for presenting a wholesome image and may add specific expectations as needed.

If hired, I agree to follow the outlined personal appearance expectations upon my arrival at camp and throughout the entire summer.
